DETAILED ACTION

1. Applicants' response filed 9/15/2011 did not include any amendments to the claims. Applicants arguments addressed below overcome the 35 USC 103 rejections over Denis in view of Tuyle and Heimann in view of Denis and further in view of Tuyle from the office action mailed on 3/15/2011, therefore these rejections are withdrawn. For the reasons stated below, claims 1-30 are in allowable condition.

Examiners Amendment

2. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

A) At the beginning of line 1 on page 1 of the specification:

Please add the phrase, "This application is a 371 of PCT/US02/12961, filed April 25th, 2002 which claims benefit of 60/286,880, filed April 27th, 2001.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

As evidenced by the prior art references of record, it is well known in the art for base oils in lubricating compositions to comprise complex esters derived from tall oil fatty acids. However, the combination of esters formed from a reaction between trimer acids derived from tall oil fatty acids and alcohol components recited in the instant claims is very specific in its preparation and the compositional compatibility with polypropylene. Applicants have demonstrated that the soya bean derived fatty acids discussed in Denis and Tuyle are not equivalent to the tall oil fatty acids recited in the instant claims. Therefore, the products disclosed in the prior art references of record are not the same as those recited in the instant claims.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to VISHAL VASISTH whose telephone number is (571)270-3716. The examiner can normally be reached on M-R 8:30a-5:30p.
